MAKE BABIES TALK

Dr. Gluck Can Do This at the Infant's Birth.

WILL BACK CLAIM WITH COIN

If Parents Will Do As He Directs They Can Have Children Who Will Be Fully Developed Wonders At 5 Years of Age.

NEW YORK, August 31.—Dr. Asher Gluck, who has just come from Chicago to do the presswork for his new religion which concerns itself with the improvement and renovation of the human baby, started to-day upon a campaign of education in Willett street.

One of the tenets of the creed of Dr.
Gluck—called by himself and twenty-nine faithful followers of his banner, "the chief architect of the new religion," is that children should be as perfect as possible. Dr. Gluck explained today that it is in bringing perfect children into the world that his religion merits the most glowing encomiums.

"I will wager any sum from $10,000 to $30,000," he says, "that healthy men and women who live perfect lives according to my direction, may have perfect children that can talk at birth, have adult brains and stature at the age of five years and be geniuses in any line that the parents shall pre-determine. I'll even promise that the child will never die."

Who Is The Boss At Home?

Eugene Wood is out with an article on Babies in the September American Magazine. At the very kickoff he shows that he is master of the subject.
He is not deluded he is not deceived.
He has found out who is boss, and he reveals the truth. He says:

"Boss of the house you were, or at last the wise lady whom you call your wife has made you think so. (A wife must have many a quiet smile all to herself.) What you say goes. 'I don't care much for pumpkin pie,' you casually remark, and forget that you have said so. From that time on there'll never be another pumpkin pie in your house unless you specifically order it.
Maybe not then. You don't like yellow turnips as well as white ones; in vain thereafter does the grocer at your back door suggest, 'We've got some nice yellow turnips.' He might as well hint that he has some green and tender Rough on Rats. You are the boss. Everything is done to suit you. You may get scolded for forgetting that there is an ash-receiver, or for leaving the Sunday papers all over the floor so that the house looks like distraction, and what if anybody should come? But don't you see that all in your interest. The appearance of the house sheds glory upon you as its master. All this, remember, is before the New Baby comes. Afterward it's: 'Sh! You'll wake the baby,' or 'Please don't smoke in here; it an-noys baby,' or 'Can't you read in the dining-room? I don't think he likes the light,' or 'Shake the furnace easy. Baby jumps so when you make such a racket,' or 'Would you mind taking him out for a little while in his carriage?' or—Oh, well, you know or, if you don't know it's time you were finding out."

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Joseph Burman Tane While Robbing Mails.

DETECTIVE WATCH IN HIDING

When Caught He Breaks Down And Admits His Theft—Large Sums Have Been Missed For Some Time But The Exact Amount Will Not Be Stated.

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 31.—Joseph Burman, an employee in the Oakland Postoffice, was arrested last night by Secret Service Agents Stuart and Magara in the act of opening packages of registered mail in the mailing department, where they had secreted themselves to watch for a thief who had been riding the mails of large amounts of late.
Burman has been in the employ in the office of the Postmaster, to which he was at once taken by the officers. He admitted that his peculations had been carried on for some time, and he was taken to the City Jail for the night. He will be taken before the United States Commission to-day and arraigned by the Federal authorities.

Burman has been in the employ of the Oakland office for about six months, during which time there have been a number of mysterious thefts from the office. Suspicion has fallen on several clerks, but of late the officers centered their attention on Burman.

Last night a watch was maintained on the mailing department and Burman was SHOT IN QUARREL.

Mystery Still Surrounds Men Who Both Received Wounds In Fight.

SPOKANE, Aug. 30.—Mystery surrounds a shooting scrape at Hillyard shortly before midnight last night, in which W. C. Baker was shot through the hand and an unknown man sustained a similar injury. Baker was arrested and brought to the county jail at an early hour this morning, but nothing can be learned of the identity of his assailant.

According to the story related by the officers here Baker appeared at the home of the man near Hillyard and by his repeated knocking brought him to the door. As soon as the man appeared upon the threshold Baker leveled a revolver upon him, at the same time remarking, "You are the man I am looking for,"
and at the same time pulled the trigger.

The weapon was not discharged and before Baker could discharge the revolver his would-be victim grappled with him and a fierce struggle ensued for the possession of the gun. While they were fighting for the revolver it exploded and the bullet penetrated Baker's hand, but he did not release his hold upon the weapon. As the struggle continued it exploded again, and this time the bullet punctured the hand of the other man.

Persons were attracted to the scene by the cries, struggles and shots and the two men were separated. An officer appeared later and Baker was taken to the county jail. He refused to reveal the identity of his victim and the officer who brought him to the jail was not aware of it.

Dr. Farrow of Hillyard, who dressed the stranger's wound, soon after the shooting said at an early hour this morning: "I could not learn what caused the trouble and understand that neither of the men live at Hillyard, both being residents of Spokane. I dressed the injuries of the one who was not arrested, but could not learn his name. The wound passed through the palm of his hand."

Baker's wound is not serious either.

seen to open a package about midnight.
He was at once pounced upon by the detectives and, under pressure broke down.
He is about 18 years of age.

The amounts stolen during the past few months make a large total, but the authorities decline to state the exact sum.
